

OPPORTUNITY for BILINGUAL FOCUS GROUP FACILITATORS

If you are:

- Bilingual (speak Arabic or Somali or any South Asian language in addition to English)
- female, and
- Muslim

Then, we are keen to hear from you.

Don't worry if you have no experience, as we will provide you with FREE training on "How to conduct a focus group" workshop. This is a good opportunity especially for research students, community workers, and volunteers to learn a new skill.

JOIN our workshop "FOCUS GROUP FACILITATOR TRAINING" on

14th May 2013, Tuesday

11.30am – 1.30pm

Cheetam and Crumpsall Welcome Centre at

Trinity United Church, 2 Greenhill Road, Cheetam Hill, Manchester M8 9LG

(Refreshments will be served)

At the end of this training a "Certificate of Attendance" will be awarded by the Sheffield Hallam University to ALL participants.

SHORT INTERVIEWS will be conducted soon after the workshop to select three facilitators who will work with us as paid FOCUS GROUP FACILITATORS on the following project.

Project Background:

Ethnic Health Forum (EHF) and Sheffield Hallam University are working in partnership to carry out a research project around Muslims and Cancer. The research objectives are to identify knowledge gaps in cancer risks, screening and treatment among Muslim communities originating from three broad ethnic and linguistic backgrounds. This research will look into the perceptions about cancer among Muslim communities living in Manchester.
